UPDATE from the Archdiocese

Following the success of our volunteer drivers travelling to the Polish border to deliver donated goods, another trip is organised, but with double the transport. Four vans will leave the archdiocese on Monday 25th April.

We are in regular contact with Bishop Gregory and the goods are those urgently requested by local people- such as medical supplies. Due to the overwhelming generosity of the donations we received ahead of the first trip, we DO NOT need any further donations for this journey.

Bishop Gregory, recorded in St Joseph's Church Anderton, Chorley in 1998, are on sale from the Archdiocese for £5 each; proceeds to the #Liverpool4Ukraine appeal. If you would like to order a copy/copies, please email:
