CAFOD HARVEST FAST DAY Friday 4th October

Saturday/Sunday 28th/29th September

We welcome Andrew Curtis and Andrew Kay at the Masses today to talk about CAFOD'S recent developments and needs.

This Harvest, we are sharing the story of Daniel, a young carpenter in Goma, Democratic Republic of Congo. Daniel is carving a better future for his family with the carpentry skills he learned in a training centre that CAFOD supporters have funded. This centre gives people in Goma the chance to learn life-changing skills, so everyone has the opportunity to carve better futures for themselves.

Give to CAFOD today and you'll fund training, tools, equipment and safe spaces so more people like Daniel can learn new skills and fulfil their God-given potential. Use the envelope in church or give online at cafod.org.uk/envelope.

MASS INTENTIONS: Please do not request intentions during October/November when there will be fewer Masses due to Fr Causey's surgery.
