ADORATION EACH WEEK

CONFESSIONS: SATURDAY, WEDNESDAY
before Mass

DAY FOR LIFE Sunday 15th June.

Archbishop John Sherrington is encouraging everyone from across the Archdiocese to participate. The theme for this year is 'Hope does not disappoint: Finding meaning in suffering.' The Terminally Ill Adults Bill (Assisted Suicide) is scheduled to return to parliament. This Day for Life is more important than ever. Write to your MP urging them to oppose the bill at the next reading, the third, on 20th June. If twenty-eight MPs change their minds the Bill will be overturned.

May the spirit of solidarity and care for those in need, always inspire political decision-making.

ST JUDE'S CHOIR needs more members. If you enjoy singing, please think about joining the choir. Sunday Mass only, no other commitments. Your voice will be very much appreciated.

THE YOUTH EFFECT for Year 5 to Year 11

Meeting on Fridays, St Aidan's Church, 6.30-8.00pm.

Dates this term: Friday: 27th June, 11th July.

If you have any queries, please contact us on theyoutheffect@outlook.com or speak to any of the leaders after Mass.

WIGAN FAMILY of PARISHES

PENTECOST WALK Parishioners enjoyed a splendid afternoon last Sunday. We hope this will be the first of many.

THE SPIRITANS APPEAL

21st/ 22nd June 2025

The Holy Ghost Fathers will be visiting both churches next weekend to tell us about how they care for the poorest most abandoned people of our world. Their work in communities include water projects, health, education youth outreach, prison ministry. Please show them your support by your usual generosity
