Confessions at St Jude's: Saturday 4.45pm-5.15pm

Pope Leo XIV's November prayer intention: "For the proper use of wealth." He asks Catholics worldwide to pray that wealth be used ethically and generously, resisting selfishness and serving the common good, especially supporting those who have less.

November: month of the Holy Souls. Brown envelopes are available in the porch for the November Pious List. Write the names of your deceased parents, relatives and friends on a piece of paper and place in the brown envelope with your donation in the same envelope. These will be placed at the altar throughout November and Mass offered each week for those on the pious list. Envelopes may be returned with the collection during Mass or to St Jude's presbytery letterbox.
